

CPD Short Course on
The Building Development Process in HK: From Inception to Completion

Broad Course Content

Lecture 1 Inception and Architectural Design

- Major Operations within the key pre-construction stages in a building development
- Operations in conceptual, preliminary and detailed design processes
- Feasibility Studies – from an architect’s perspective

Lecture 2 Feasibility Studies and Building Planning

- Feasibility Studies – from a surveyor’s perspective
- Building (Planning) Regulation & Land-Use Conversion
- Residual and GFA Calculations

Lecture 3 Managing Operations and Cost in Construction

- Time and quality management for construction works
- Application of necessary works permits, consents and occupation permit
- Fundamentals in Construction Cost Control

Designed For

Engineers, surveyors, consultants & contractors (building, civil and structural disciplines) who are interested and involved in management of building developments in Hong Kong.

Time & Duration

3 hours per Lecture, 3 Lectures.

Language Of Delivery

Cantonese supplemented with English Terminologies.