

CPD Course on
Construction Contractual Claims Workshop – Illustrated with Case Studies on Major Local/China Infrastructure Projects

Broad Course Content

- Practices & Procedures for Lodging Construction Claims
- Preparing Claims for project procured using various Contractual Arrangements – with special emphasis on Alternative Design and Build Arrangement
- Tactics & Techniques in Subcontract Administration.
- Procurement & Contractual environment in Mainland China
- Construction Claims & Arbitration Practices in Mainland China
- Practical Case Studies with special emphasis on tunnelling and railway station projects.

Brief Introduction to Speaker

Fred Y.S. Lee, BSc(Eng), FInstCES, Director, ADR Consultants Ltd. (Formerly Head of QS and Contracts Department, Maeda Corporation Hong Kong)

Peter L.K. Tang, LLB, MA(Arb), FCI Arb, MInstCES, Director, ADR Consultants Ltd.

Both speakers have more than 20 years of experience in administrating local and Mainland China civil engineering contracts. They have occupied significant managerial roles in projects like Daya Bay Nuclear Power Station, Black Point Power Station, Kap Sui Mun Bridge, Tsing Yi MTR Station, Tuen Mun Highway, Hung Hom Bypass, West Kowloon Reclamation.

Designed For

Engineers (building, civil, structural and geotechnical disciplines), surveyors, consultants & contractors who are interested and involved in project management and contract administration of civil engineering project.

Time & Duration

3 hours per Lecture, 2 Lectures.

Language Of Delivery

Cantonese supplemented with English Terminologies.